Re: United States v. Sakoya Blackwood, 22 Cr. 460 (JMF)

Dear Judge Furman:

Please find enclosed a proposed protective order, which the parties have already executed. The Government submits that the proposed protective order is appropriate under Rule 16(d)(1) because the Government anticipates that the discovery materials will include, among other things: (1) materials that refer to victims and/or witnesses relating to an ongoing investigation; and (2) materials, including sexually explicit materials, that affect the privacy and confidentiality of other individuals.

Respectfully submitted,

DAMIAN WILLIAMS
United States Attorney
